

HURLEY ROGNER

MILLER, COX, WARANCH & WESTCOTT, P.A.

W. Rogers Turner, Jr. is a shareholder in the Winter Park office of Hurley, Rogner, Miller, Cox, Waranch and Westcott, P.A. He is Board Certified by the Florida Bar as a Specialist in Workers' Compensation Law and AV- rated by Martindale Hubbell.

Since 1998, his primary practice has been representing the interests of employers, carriers and claim handling entities in litigated workers' compensation claims. He has handled DOAH actions under Chapter 120, as well as Federal Wage and Hour claims. Certified by the Florida Dept. of Insurance as a lecturer, he presents frequently to employer and insurance groups.

Rogers earned his B.A. in German and History from Tulane University, a Masters in Public Administration with a concentration in Health Policy from Florida State University and his J.D. from Stetson University College of Law.

Prior to practicing law, he worked in both the United States Congress and the Florida Legislature, as well as the Division of Workers' Compensation. Rogers edits the case notes section of the Florida Bar's News and 440 Report, serves on the faculty for the Florida Bar Workers' Compensation Forum and as a member of the Bar's Workers' Compensation Certification Committee.