PUBLICATION PREFERENCES

Legislative publications are delivered by e-mail to ensure timeliness of information and to permit links to supplemental resources when available (i.e., video clips, text of speeches, etc.).

- Alerts — Sent by the Lobby Team during the day when something "breaks" during legislative session.
- Daily Brief — Published Mon-Thur during sessions to summarize the day's activities on key legislation
- Weekly Session Update — Published on Fridays during legislative sessions to summarize the week's activities on key legislation. Also includes the:

AIFTV — Link to AIF's Weekly Internet video program, featuring interviews with leading law makers, updates from the AIF Lobby Team, and much more.

Legislative Interim Brief — Published between sessions during weeks of committee meetings.

Special Notices — Published as needed to announce new developments in the legislative, regulatory, executive, and judicial arenas or to announce meetings, formation of new committees, or communicate other important information to the members.

NOTE: Print Publications will be sent automatically:
Voting Records, New Law Reference Guide, Know Your Legislators, etc.
