

Rate Filing Update #1

After the Florida Supreme Court issued the Emma Murray decision on Thursday, October 23rd, there was some question as to how this decision impacted the resolution of the 1/1/09 Florida workers compensation rate filing which is still pending before the Florida Office of Insurance Regulation (OIR).

The 1/1/09 Florida workers compensation rate filing process will not be impacted by the Emma Murray decision. Amended 1/1/09 Florida rate pages were submitted early yesterday to the OIR for approval. We expect a final order from the Commissioner next week. Once we receive the final order, the amended rate pages will be posted on www.ncci.com.

NCCI intends to make a separate law-only filing for the impact of the Emma Murray decision in mid-November with a proposed effective date of 3/1/09 which will apply to new, renewal, and outstanding policies.

As further information becomes available, I will keep you informed.
